

3T, Metal Processing, Mould and Automation Technologies Fair, March 8 to 11, 2012 date is the 10th time, will be held in Izmir International Fairground. The Eurasian region, which is one of the largest metal processing technologies in 3T to take part in trade fairs, participants and visitors the chance to access to one of the world's most rapidly developing markets have the potential, while the formation of partnerships and new technological trends, identify future business gives the opportunity. For years, 3T Fair which brings together many local and foreign companies, investors, and a lot of research provides a new opportunity to make connections with the supplier. Details